

Dr George Tsakogiannis

Short Curriculum Vitae (C.V.)

Dr George Tsakogiannis was the General Manager of Bull Greece from January 2007 until September 2013. Since 1993, he has held senior positions in research, government and multinational IT firms. He served as Research Associate at the Computer Technology Institute, as Director General of the IT Development Agency at the Ministry of the Interior, as Business Development Manager and Education Manager at Oracle Hellas and as Sales Manager for Romania and Bulgaria at Sun Microsystems Hellas. He moved to Bull Greece as Sales and Marketing Director in October 2005.

Dr George Tsakogiannis holds a BEng in Electrical Engineering from the National Technical University of Athens, an MSc and a PhD in Computer Science from the University of Manchester and an MBA from the Athens University of Business and Economics. He is currently the President of the University of Manchester Alumni Association Greece and a Member of the Board of the Leadership Section of the Hellenic Management Association.